AUSTRIAN ARCHDUKE SHOT DOWN

Francis Ferdinand, heir to the throne, and his wife killed by a student.

FIRST ATTEMPT FAILS

Bomb thrown at royal pair earlier in day, but is warded off.

BROTHER BECOMES HEIR

Morganatic Marriage Debars Children of Elder Brother from Succession to Throne.

SARAJEVO, June 29.—Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austrian-Hungarian throne, and his morganatic wife, a Dutchess of Hohenberg, were assassinated Sunday while driving through the streets of Sarajevo, the Bosnian capital. The youth who fired the shots which added another to the long list of tragedies that have darkened the reign of Emperor Franz Joseph. The archduke and his wife were victims of the second attempt in the same day against their lives. First a bomb was thrown at the automobile which they were driving to the home of the late archduke. Forewarned by a telegram, the archduke was able to turn his car and the bomb was exploded. The archduke was watching a medical parade and heard the explosion. The medical party was immediately summoned and the archduke was taken to the hospital where he died soon afterwards. The emperor and his wife were also on the same route and were waiting at the time of the explosion. The emperor and his wife were unharmed.

Governor Not Wounded.

On their return from the hospital they were driven to the palace and it was announced that they would not leave the country. The archduke's wife was not wounded and she will remain in Sarajevo. The archduke's death has caused great mourning throughout the country. The emperor and his wife have been in close correspondence with the archduke and it was announced that they would return to Vienna immediately. The archduke was a favorite of the emperor and his death has caused great grief in the imperial family.

MAYOR WILL OPPOSE ZOO APPROPRIATION

Provision for $500 a month maintenance is out of budget.

"Unless Mayor Brown can get its appropriation, the council can be induced to over ride his wishes," the city attorney said yesterday.

"Nothing is more needed in the council than a city" would not go. In a letter to the mayor, the councilman said that he was unable to make the appropriation. The mayor was not in favor of the appropriation and the councilman said that he would not vote for it.

UNREST IN MEXICO

The violent outburst of the Mexican government against the United States has created tension in the country. The government has declared that it will not tolerate any interference with its internal affairs and has called for a general strike. The government has also ordered the police to arrest any persons who attempt to interfere with its work.

Underwood Ins. on Agram 2

These photographs are a panorama of the civil war in Italy, as the war is being placed by the Italian government.